

Reiki Training

Did you know that you do not have to be a massage therapist to learn or practice Reiki? Reiki is an ancient energy based modality that has been used for healing and as a path to enlightenment. Reiki I focuses on self care and learning to clear yourself of energies that no longer serve you or your goals. Reiki II teaches you to work on others. This can extend past your family, friends or pets and could help you tap into your inner healer. Reiki III is the level of the master/teacher and enables you to teach others the Reiki system of healing. Karuna Healing Reiki takes Reiki to an all new level and many experience very profound healings from these sessions. Whether you want to focus on keeping your own body strong and healthy, or whether you want to assist others in their healing journey, Reiki will have a profound affect on your life. Classes are taught to individuals or groups. Please call for questions or to set up a class.

Client Feedback Requested

In this economy, it is difficult to know what it is my clients need to continue with their wellness enhancing services. If you have a minute, please send me an email and let me know what kind of specials you would like to see, what price range for services your budget allows for, and any package programs you would like to see, etc. Thank you in advance for taking time to let me know what I can do to help.
