Happy Mother's Day

I hope you take some time this month to honor yourselves! I am now officially on maternity leave, as I had Makayla a bit early. I will be on maternity leave as of April 30th, and it is my intention at this time to return to work on June 1. I will of course keep everyone updated if that should change.

In the meantime, I have an awesome massage therapist coming in to take care of any of you that would like to receive massage while I am out. She is really good, as she is my massage therapist and I am really, really picky :) . Paula is Certified as a Massage Therapist and a Reiki Master and her phone number 303.489.6891. I sincerely appreciate my client's loyalty, however, I do not want you to not receive your bodywork during my leave, so please take advantage of Paula's skills. Also, when you book with her, let her know you are one of my clients as she is honoring my recession price breaks, so your cost will still be the same.

If you are wanting to purchase Mother's Day gift certificates and you are wanting me to perform the service, I will be more than happy to take your order over the phone and email you the certificate. I will date it for June 1-August 31, 2009. Otherwise, if you are comfortable, Paula can honor the certificate during the month of May during my absence and the certificate would be valid through July 31, 2009.
